

2015 Tom Fitzsimon Award Nomination Form

Background

The Tom Fitzsimon Award is a peer-nominated professional learning award sponsored by BACPPA, which recognises a strong commitment to professional learning in the fields of leadership and education made by a leader in one of our Catholic schools. The award consists of a grant to support further professional initiatives. Recipients of the award will be profiled on the Association website, where a perpetual record of recipients will be recorded.

Nominees must:

- be financial members of BACPPA
- be nominated, in writing, by another financial member of BACPPA
- have demonstrated their commitment to their own professional learning during the previous twelve month period
- have shared their professional learning with their colleagues
- have transferred their professional learning into practice.

The successful applicant/nominee will be selected by the Executive Committee of BACPPA. The Executive Committee, at its discretion, and as appropriate, may invite other educational professionals to join the selection panel. Members of the Executive Committee are not eligible for this award.
